AUTOMOTIVE DISTRIBUTION NETWORK NAMES STEVE TUCKER VICE PRESIDENT OF AUTO PRIDE NETWORK

GERMANTOWN, TENNESSEE, April 9, 2010– The Automotive Distribution Network (ADN) has named Steve Tucker its new Vice-President of the Auto Pride Network, according to Mike Lambert, President of the Network.

“Appointing Steve to this new position is an important step to growing the relationships both within the membership of Auto Pride Network and also with the membership of ADN,” Mr. Lambert said. “He is a respected senior executive in the automotive aftermarket, with expertise in many facets of the industry.”

“Steve was our first and only choice to be our Vice President. He brings over 30 years of experience, from store operations to manufacturing to working with program groups,” said Ron Sutton, chairman of Auto Pride Network. “Steve is the right person to take us to the next level as a group.”

“This is a wonderful opportunity for me, one I think I’ve been looking forward to my entire career,” Mr. Tucker said. “I believe I can strengthen the relationships within the Auto Pride Network and grow our membership, as well as working within the Automotive Distribution Network and our contacts in the manufacturing community.”

Operating under the brands of Parts Plus, IAPA, Auto Star, Auto Pride, CMB, and Network Products, The Automotive Distribution Network is one of the largest and most diverse program groups in the automotive aftermarket.
